

UW-Madison Student Permission and Release to Use Copyrighted Course Work

Student Name (print or type): _____

Program: _____

Project or Thesis title: _____

Students in the above program must prepare a professional project or a thesis to fulfill requirements of the master's degree. As a University of Wisconsin-Madison student in the above-identified program, your project or thesis constitutes a confidential educational record under the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) and to which you hold copyright. FERPA authorizes the Program to use projects and theses for internal administrative and accreditation purposes. The Program may also wish to use projects and theses as examples for future students or to display publicly in a variety of media. Student permission is required.

A. Authorization (Please check the appropriate authorization)

All educational uses - I grant the University of Wisconsin-Madison and its employees and agents the non-exclusive right to use, copy, publish, reproduce and distribute my project or thesis for non-commercial, educational purposes in a variety of ways including via the Internet or any other media now existing or developed in the future.

Sharing with future students only – I grant the University of Wisconsin-Madison and its employees and agents the right to share my project or thesis with other students as a sample work.

Administrative purposes only - I do not authorize the University of Wisconsin-Madison and its employees and agents to use my project or thesis beyond the administrative purposes already authorized by FERPA.

B. Attribution (Please check the appropriate attribution preference)

Authorized use of my project or thesis shall include attribution in the form of my first and last name and year prepared.

Authorized use of my project or thesis shall be without attribution or identification.

I understand that no remuneration or consideration for use of my project or thesis will be received. I retain all other rights in and to the project or thesis, including copyright. I further warrant and represent that I solely created the project or thesis and that I own all rights, title, and interest in the project or thesis and all intellectual property rights protecting it.

I understand that I may decline to grant this permission without penalty. I release the University of Wisconsin-Madison and its employees and agents from any and all claims and demands arising out of or in connection with the use of my project or thesis. I have read the foregoing and fully understand the contents. This release shall be binding upon me and my heirs, legal representatives and assigns.
