

Department of Urban and Regional Planning
University of Wisconsin-Madison
925 Bascom Mall
Madison 53705
Ph: 608/262 1004

CERTIFICATION FOR PH.D. MINOR IN URBAN AND REGIONAL PLANNING

The Ph.D. Minor in Urban and Regional Planning:

- The minor shall consist of twelve (12) credits of course work, of which a maximum of three credits will be URPL 999 (independent study).
- Courses shall be taken with core faculty of the Department.
- Courses taken shall be at the 600 level and above, excluding 699.
- Students should select courses which provide a breadth of understanding of the theory and methods of the field, and provide some depth in a concentration area.

URPL Courses Taken for Ph.D. Minor in Urban and Regional Planning:

Student Name:

Major:

Please provide the information below for each of the courses you wish to count towards a Ph.D. in Urban and Regional Planning:

Course Code & Title:

Semester/Year:

Instructor:

_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____

Certification:

Chair, Ph.D. Program Committee,
Department of Urban and Regional Planning

Date

Please submit original to the Departmental administrator; retain a copy for your records.