

Department of Planning and Landscape Architecture
UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN-MADISON

CERTIFICATION FOR PH.D. MINOR IN URBAN AND REGIONAL PLANNING

- The minor shall consist of nine (9) credits of course work, of which a maximum of three credits will be URPL 999 (independent study), w/a gpa of 3.5 for minor certification.
- Courses shall be taken with core faculty of the Department.
- Courses taken shall be at the 600 level and above, excluding 699.
- Students should select courses which provide a breadth of understanding of the theory and methods of the field, and provide some depth in a concentration area.

URPL Courses Taken for Ph.D. Minor in Urban and Regional Planning:

Student Name:

Major:

Explain briefly the intellectual coherence of the courses that comprise your URPL Minor:

Please provide the information below for each of the courses you wish to count towards a Ph.D. in Urban and Regional Planning:

Course Code & Title:	Semester/Year:	Grade:
_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____

Certification:

Chair, Ph.D. Program Committee,
Department of Planning &
Landscape Architecture

Date

Please submit original to the DPLA Graduate Coordinator; retain a copy for your records.